Preview of the Israeli Election, with Journalist Gil Hoffman

Join the BJC and the Insight Israel Forum as we welcome Gil Hoffman, Executive Director of Honest Reporting and former Chief Political Correspondent for the Jerusalem Post, who will share an insightful look at the upcoming Israel election October 24th at 7pm.

What can we expect when Israelis go to the polls? What are the key issues? What makes this election different from the other recent elections? And what should we look for as the results come in and a new coalition government attempts to form?

The program will be available both in-person and online.

Conversations for Change: The U.S. and the Holocaust

Did you see The U.S. And The Holocaust, a new three-part documentary directed and produced by Ken Burns, Lynn Novick, and Sarah Botstein, exploring America's response to one of the greatest humanitarian crises in history?

If you missed our community conversation about the documentary and our local efforts to educate about the Holocaust and combat hate and antisemitism, here's a link to watch it

The conversation featured Howard Libit and Emily Goodman of the BJC, Marisa Shultz of the Jewish Museum of Maryland, and Stacey Aviva Flint of the Jewish Federations of North America.
