

ANNUAL ENVIRONMENTAL FORUM: PERSEVERING THROUGH UNCHARTED WATERS

Navigating Pressures to Alter the Course of Environmental Sustainability in Maryland

Hosted in partnership between Adamah and the Baltimore Jewish Council, with support from the Baltimore Environmental Sustainability Network \(BESN\).
(BESN is an initiative of The Associated: Jewish Federation of Baltimore in partnership with Adamah)

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 7
10:00–11:30 A.M.

Pearlstone Retreat Center
5425 Mt Gilead Road, Reisterstown

Join us for this year's Annual Environmental Forum, where community members, advocates and environmental leaders come together to explore the latest in Maryland's environmental policy. Hear directly from those shaping state legislation and discover how you can take meaningful action.

This event is open to all.
No prior experience with environmental policy or Jewish community involvement is needed. Just bring your curiosity and commitment to a healthier planet.

RSVP at <https://bit.ly/AEForum25>

Questions? Email sam.sobel@adamah.org

WHAT TO EXPECT:

- Panel Discussion
A conversation with key Maryland legislators, moderated by Rabbi Fred Scherlinder Dobb.
- Community Connections
Visit tables from local environmental organizations, including Interfaith Partners for the Chesapeake, League of Conservation Voters, Clean Water Action, Sierra Club & more.
- Delicious Brunch
Fully vegetarian, OU-certified kosher, with gluten-free and vegan options.
- Optional Workshop (Following the Forum)
Learn how to grow your own mushrooms with Pearlstone's hands-on class. Participants will help replenish Pearlstone's mushroom logs and take home one or two of their own.